

Manali Jispa Kasol with Baralacha Pass and Suraj Taal from Delhi

3 nights, 4 days

Overview

Manali Jispa Kasol with Baralacha Pass

Manali, a high-altitude Himalayan town surrounded by the Pir Panjal and Dhauladhar ranges, is a haven for every traveler. Whether you're seeking relaxation with family, a backpacking adventure with friends, or a solo escape, Manali offers it all. One of the must-see places is the thrilling Solang Valley, just 14 km from Manali, where adventure lovers can indulge in activities like paragliding, skiing, quad biking, and more.

Jispa, a picturesque village located in the Lahaul district, is another highlight. Situated on the banks of the Bhaga River and 2 hours away from Baralacha-la, it offers mesmerizing views of the surrounding mountains. Known as a stop on the Manali-Leh Highway, Jispa is an enchanting destination in its own right. At 10,500 feet, it provides a tranquil, Zen-like retreat—an unforgettable experience for anyone looking for serenity amidst stunning landscapes.

Kasol is a charming village located in the Parvati Valley of Himachal Pradesh, nestled along the Parvati River. Known as the "Amsterdam of India," Kasol attracts backpackers and nature lovers from around the world. Its peaceful ambiance, scenic beauty, and vibrant culture make it a popular destination for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle of city life.
